

THE IOLA REGISTER.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY.

CHAS. F. SCOTT.

THE COUNTY NEWS.

Interesting Items From All Over Allen County.

THE MOST IMPORTANT DEEDS

DONE BY YOUR NEIGHBORS FAITHFULLY AND IMPARTIALLY SET DOWN BY REGISTER REPORTERS

SALEM.

(W. S. Lytle is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Salem. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through him, and any assistance rendered him in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

(Received too late last week.)

We noticed John Holt, of LaHarpe one of Salem's old boys at church Sunday.

Malain Stauffer was the guest of W. S. Lytle Sunday.

A. Wood and wife were invited to a birthday dinner at Elisha Jay's of Maple Grove. They report a good time.

We are requested to give notice to those parties that were killing quail around Mr. Pettit's last week not to repeat it or they might get in trouble.

Park Vanskiver had a hog to stray from his place one day last week, say one having taken up the same would confer a favor by notifying him.

Mr. Gard of Iola was out in our neighborhood Monday looking after his insurance business.

A. Wood and wife, W. S. Lytle and family were the guests of Alfred Cunningham Tuesday.

LA GRANDE.

Married: Mr. George Myers of Ft. Scott, and Miss Gertrude Nelson, at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Henshaw, officiating. A bountiful dinner had been prepared which was next in order after the ceremony. About forty guests were present. The next day, Monday, they repaired to the home of the groom's brother, A. J. Myers, where forty invited guests feasted and made merry. The day following another brother, William Myers, also gave a dinner in honor of the bride and groom. But this did not end the festivities. The next day Isaac Myers, who is also a brother of the groom, gave them a dinner. Mr. Myers and wife and her sister left Thursday for Ft. Scott where he is foreman in the railroad shops. The bride and groom are well known and highly respected.

Protracted meetings began at the Chapel Sunday evening.

The S. S. convention at LaGrande was well attended and an interesting program was carried out.

Willard Vandegrift came from Eldorado to attend the Myers-Nelson wedding and spent a few days with the home folks.

ALLEN CENTER.

(J. T. Tredway is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Allen Center. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through him, and any assistance rendered him in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

Frank Miller is building the meat market and town hall in LaHarpe for the Holt Bros.

Dora Morrison is first to start the plow this spring.

Mr. Rhoades grand children are visiting him and attending school at the Center for a few days.

A number of Center's young people attended the drama at LaHarpe last week.

A Miss Paxley, grand-daughter of Mr. Ben Davis, is visiting friends here.

We are glad to note that the reports and rumors concerning the death and suffering of L. L. Northrup have proven unfounded and hope for his complete recovery.

Mr. Tobey shipped some cattle and three cars of hogs last week giving his patrons the benefit of all the rise in the market.

Perry Newton makes daily trips to Iola, hauling corn and tools preparatory to his final move March first.

SPRING BRANCH.

(Mr. Frank Jackson is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Spring Branch. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through him, and any assistance rendered him in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

(Received too late last week.)

Miss Arnold's entertainment and basket supper at Rock Creek Friday night was a success in every particular entertaining as well as profitable. Twelve dollars was cleared for the benefit of a library.

Sherman Hardin and wife have gone to Missouri to make that their future home.

Ora Montgomery has bought Mr. Wise's prairie and tame hay and is pressing it this week.

Mr. Merchant is holding a meeting at Pleasant Valley this week.

There are lots of stock buyers around here now days.

Charley Seeberger, and Frank Delp both ride new saddles this week, and Mr. Wise has a new set of harness.

There seems to be more tramps in this part at present than ever before.

On account of the stormy weather only a few went to Mr. Mull's sale even the auctioneer did not make his appearance.

Mr. Childs has sold his farm to Mr. Blood from western Kansas. Mr. Childs will move to Hutchinson in the spring where he has a paying job as traveling salesman for a milling company.

Ed Roads bought fifty head of steers Tuesday.

The hog cholera has broke out again in this part, Johnnie Howard having lost about a dozen last week.

The sick in this part are all improving at present.

(This week's items.)

Mr. Baker from Savonburg is in this part this week writing insurance policies for the farmers.

John Mowery lost quite a number of hogs with the cholera last week.

Frank Delp was visiting in Woodson county the first of the week.

There has been several spring wagons as well as lumber wagons stuck in the mud in this part recently.

Mr. Harman has rented a farm in the Golden Valley neighborhood and will move in the spring.

Jim Siran of Iola has rented Jim Harvey's farm and will move soon.

Some dogs destroyed a hind quarter of beef for Mr. Sawyer one night last week.

There isn't houses and farms enough in this part to supply the demand.

Sunday was a very favorable day for those that keep the second of Feb. for ground hog day.

Note Rem and family of Yates Center has been visiting at Mr. Daniel's this week.

Mrs. Pernell sold her turkeys at Iola Tuesday and got seven cents a pound. That is a good price for Ks.

LA HARPE.

(Mrs. F. M. Davis is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at LaHarpe. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through her, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

J. Q. Roberts was down to Elmore Sunday to see his uncle. He received a telegram Monday announcing his uncle's death. There was no more school this week.

One of Mr. Shaw's neighbors is here from Iowa with a view to buying a farm.

The presiding Elder preached here Sunday and Monday, the last quarterly meeting of the year. Rev. Gamble is holding protracted meeting here with a good attendance.

Ed. Thompson and mother have moved to the Blodgett farm.

Wood and Gullett shipped hogs Monday.

Quite a number of the renters here have failed to get farms and don't know where they will live another year. Rents are so exorbitant.

The LaHarpe Dramatic clubs drama as rendered last Friday night was well rendered. Although it was a disagreeable night and bad roads, the house was crowded and a great number had to stand. It was a success, the proceeds were $25.25. This is for the benefit of a school library.

The expected to render the same drama at Elmore (this Friday night) but owing to the death of Mr. Robert's uncle it will not be rendered now.

Mrs. Funk returned from Lincoln county Monday and reported a new daughter at Mr. Steinmetz.

BRONSON.

Miss Jesse Milligan and little niece, Sydney Dye spent Saturday in Iola.

Mrs. C. Cummings went to Union town Saturday evening to visit her daughter Mrs. Dark.

Miss Adda Rumble and little brother, Samuel, of Parsons spent several days in town last week visiting friends.

O. Love and W. Stewart spent the latter part of the week in Fort Scott.

The revival services at the M. E. church are still in progress with increasing interest. Rev. Lewis former pastor of the M. E. church South, conducted the meeting Friday evening and Rev. Trout of the First Baptist church preached Sunday evening.

O. C. Brown of Cato came up Saturday to visit the B. Y. P. U. Society at this place and stayed over Sunday.

H. J. Russell spent Sunday in Fort Scott with his family.

Rose Hosley and Mable Cummings returned to Fort Scott Sunday evening.

Smith Davis accompanied Rev. Trout to his home in Ottawa Monday evening.

FUNSTON

(Miss Amy Seymour is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Funston. Any one desiring to subscribe may do so through her, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

(Received too late last week.)

The people of Funston failed to get their REGISTER week before last. Cause unknown.

John W. Seymoure has a brother from Illinois visiting him.

Miss Louise Randolph went home from Mrs. Stewart's Tuesday. She expects to go to Kansas City soon.

Mrs. Willis Walker spent Monday with her sister Mrs. Isaac.

We expect E. M. Eckley from Neosho Falls Monday to spend a few days with his old army comrades, J. T.

and J. W. Seymour.

Mrs. David Ayers has been very sick but is much improved at this writing.

Mrs. D. W. Curfman who has been in very poor health for so long expects to leave Monday for Kansas City to a hospital where we hope for her recovery. Her husband will accompany her and remain with her for awhile.

On Sunday Feb. 16, we are going to have a concert in our S. S. Everybody invited to come.

Rosena Mitchell is staying with Mrs. Ayers a few days.

LIBERTY.

(J. C. Cornell is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Liberty. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through him, and any assistance rendered him in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

Mud! mud! mud!

The warm weather makes the wheat look nice.

Cary Roush and boys are cutting logs for Jim Trine purchased of Jacob Heath.

A. L. Townsend is making his new home nice and convenient.

Mrs. Geo. Townsend gave a carpet bee last Thursday it was well attended considering the bad weather.

Oscar Heath sold his mules last week and purchased two more.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Marion Delson a 10 lb boy Jan. 28.

Several of the boys of this vicinity were down to Salem one night last week to church and one of the boys horses broke loose and the boys had to double up and carry two on a horse.

A Grand Scaptoion Exhibition was given by S. H. Cady at Liberty school house Wednesday night.

CENTER GROVE.

(Miss Belle Reynolds is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Center Grove. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through her, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

Rudolph Palstring who has been staying in Indiana the past three months has returned home.

Several of our neighbors had money in the Humboldt National bank when it failed.

Misses Ella Cochran, Lottie Wiggins, Grace Hamilton, and Mrs. Ivy Jay visited at Mr. Day's near Cottage Grove last Tuesday.

Several of the young folks attended a party at A. Jay's near Maple Grove Wednesday night.

Mr. Fuss, who lived on Mr. Carver's farm with his son Wm, died last Friday morning. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Coffield of Humboldt at the Lutheran cemetery last Sunday. Mrs. Fuss is also very sick.

PRAIRIE DELL.

(Mrs. M. J. Barth is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Prairie Dell. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through her, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

Miss Belle McHenry entertained the fifth grade at her home last Tuesday evening.

Quite a number of cases of bad colds are reported.

Mrs. Faddis of Iola is out helping Mrs. Barth who has been in poor health for some time.

Scott Rudy of Johnson county has been in the neighborhood recently looking after his property.

Chas. Cain who has been visiting in Indiana for several weeks was visiting our school Friday. He was quite favorably impressed.

Edna Arnold accompanied her teacher home last Friday to visit over Sunday.

Geo. Newman and family were here visiting Mrs. Newman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McCullough last week.

Walter Miller and his sister Clara, from west of the river were visiting at Mr. McCullough's Sunday.

Mr. McClelland purchased a new riding plow last fall. Bill says it is just fun to plow now.

E. W. Arnold has rented sixty acres of land from Mr. Campbell. And also treated himself to a new riding plow recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill were visiting at Mr. Baker's the first of the week.

MORAN.

(Harry J. Bassett is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Moran. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through him, and any assistance rendered him in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

W. T. Strong was in Nebraska last week.

Co. Supt. H. H. Jones of Iola was in Moran last week.

The entertainment given by Miss Welch, of Iola assisted by the Moran orchestra, in the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening of last week was well attended. Miss Welch's recitations were excellently rendered and heartily received, she being encored several times. The music by the orchestra was fine (as it always is.)

Miss Floy McGlashan's schottische "Primrose" was rendered and heartily received by the audience. The gross proceeds were $21.45.

James McGuire went down to the Strip last week on business.

Miss Jennie McNeil of Iola was in Moran the first part of last week.

Prof. S. L. Fogleman and wife went to Iola Saturday to attend the teachers association. While there Prof. Fogleman selected a number of books for the high school library.

Christian Endeavor day was observed by the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning.

The M. E. quarterly meeting was held last Monday.

Mrs. Warfield of Ft. Scott visited her father, G. W. Stephenson last week.

Miss Blanche Smith spent Saturday and Sunday in Iola.

ANNA.

(Grace M. is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Anna. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through her, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

A. P. Gibson shipped hogs and cattle to K. C. last Monday.

Mrs. Davy Hunter has been sick for some time but is better now.

Mrs. Will Simmons of Iola is visiting relatives and friends at Leanna.

Mrs. Crow of Stark was visiting in the neighborhood last week.

F. Mills made a business trip to Humboldt last Saturday.

Miss Ada Richardson has returned to Savonburg where she will resume her school work.

The protracted meeting is progressing nicely. There have been three confessions.

Miss Bertha Reed has been suffering the past few days with neuralgia in her head.

Little Jasper Snodgrass and Flora Richardson have both been having a throat trouble something the nature of bronchitis but they are both better now.

Miss Vada Smith of Prairie View visited Miss Bessie Mills last Monday evening.

The Prairie View School District held an election last Saturday for the purpose of voting bonds for a new school house. The bonds carried. A school house is badly needed there and it will be a great benefit to the district to have a new house.

A few of our friends from Maple Grove attended church at Leanna last Sunday night.

SAVONBURG.

(L. E. DeHaven is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Savonburg. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through him, and any assistance rendered him in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

D. Ewart has sold his stock and it has been removed so the Big Store is once more vacant.

Alpheus Snodgrass has rented the Olson property in the south part of town.

Died, Wednesday Jan 29, little Ida, the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Olson. The parents have our sincere sympathy in their bereavement.

Mrs. Della Olson and children went to their future home in Kansas City last Saturday.

H. A. Richardson of Leanna was in town Sunday.

Louis Huff has sold his property in the north part of town to Mr. Jackson of Rockford Valley.

O. D. Courtney made a business trip to Elmore Friday.

Our Grandmother's name was Yeager—please pass some of that fortune this way.

Ira Miller has rented a farm and will move in a short time. We are sorry to lose so genial a townsman.

Miss Ada Richardson, having recovered from the measles, has returned to school.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. DeHaven visited near Leanna last week.

Frank Kinne has returned to his home at Moran.

Mr. Hamilton's have another heir at their home.

J. O. Nyman has been quite sick with measles.

GENEVA.

(Miss Kewlton is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Geneva. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through her, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

Robt. West, of St. Joseph, Mo., has returned home for a short visit to his parents.

John Irwin and family moved to Westphalia this week. Mr. Irwin has the position of operator in that place.

Miss Tippin of Greeley, is visiting her sister Mrs. McGuire.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Powell died Sunday and was buried in Geneva cemetery Monday.

The family has the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cornell of Piqua spent Sunday with Mrs. Spencer.

Sunnyside are practicing and will soon repeat the play "Under the Laurels."

NORTH MAPLE GROVE.

(Miss Ruby Winger is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at North Maple Grove. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through her, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

Miss Anna Fethergrill spent Saturday Sunday at home.

Charlie Cain returned from a visit to Ind. Wednesday. He says that the winter there has been cold, and that the sleighing has been fine.

Tom McLelland Jr. went to Kansas City Saturday where he expects to remain some time.

Despite the dark night and muddy roads of last Friday, quite a number were out to the oyster supper. $15.00 was taken in.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Wisner were sick last week. Very severe colds with fever was the trouble.

The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Powell died Sunday, and was interred Monday in the Geneva cemetery. They have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

Little Edna Arnold of Prairie Dell came home with her teacher, Miss Minnie Cain, Friday.

Charlie Dickson was crippled one day last week by a horse falling on his leg.

Newt, Cozine will lead the prayer meeting Saturday night. He has taken a part of the "Sermon on the Mount," for a subject, and wishes everyone to come and bring a Bible.

Messrs Winchester and Troutwine are convalescent.

SOUTH MAPLE GROVE.

(Olive M. Gessell is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at South Maple Grove. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through her, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

Russell Hottenstein returned Sunday from Memphis, where he had been with a car load of horses.

The young people had a social gathering at Albert Jay's last Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Jay moved on Thursday. We wish them success where ever they may make their home.

Wilbur Gessell visited relatives at Erie several days last week, returning home Sunday.

Our teachers attended the Association at Iola last Saturday.

Mr. Beeman and wife attended the wedding of their son Ed. to Miss Lou Shoemaker at Chauate on Wednesday Jan. 29. We extend best wishes to Ed. and wife. They went to house keeping on a farm near Chanute.

Wilson Hawley visited his parents at LaHarpe the first of the week.

Arnold Dimond accidentally discharged a revolver in his left hand one day last week causing a flesh wound. He is getting along nicely.

The Central Avenue school was dismissed a few days the first of the week, on account of the teacher being on the sick list.

Miss Cora Lash had a severe attack of tonsillitis last week.

Miss Irene Moore returned home from Minneapolis, Ks. on last Wednesday, where she had been visiting relatives.

There was a social gathering at Mrs. Finley's on Monday, the occasion being in memory of her birthday.

Quite a number of friends assembled at the home of Howard Moore Wednesday of last week and pleasantly surprised his wife and reminded her of another anniversary day.

Born: Jan. 28 to Mr. and Mrs. C. Beeman, a daughter.

Mrs. J. M. Lindsey went to Moran Monday to visit her mother.

CARLYLE.

(C. A. Stinson is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Carlyle. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through him, and any assistance rendered him in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

Mrs. Green returned from Ft. Scott last Wednesday. Her father's death occurred before she could reach him. We extend our deepest sympathy.

P. M. Carnine was down from Emporia over Sunday.

James Glickerson returned to Kansas City Saturday night.

Miss Ella Glickerson spent last week at home.

The Women's Missionary Society met with Mrs. A. E. Culbertson Thursday of this week.

Rev. M. F. King of Iola is holding meetings at Carlyle school house this week.

PRAIRIE CENTER.

(Lillian Smith is the authorized reporter and agent for the REGISTER at Prairie Center. Those desiring to subscribe may do so through her, and any assistance rendered her in gathering the news of the neighborhood will be appreciated.)

Quite a number of the men of the neighborhood have been grubbing wood in Mr. Fisher's timber during the past month.

David Elleeson had the misfortune to have one of his lower limbs broken last Sunday by a